

Extra-Curricular Clubs – Spring Term 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

This email covers information regarding after school extra-curricular clubs for the Spring term 2024.

The clubs have been established at Berrywood for some time and are run by external companies with the exception of the tennis club, which is new for the Spring term. There may be further school run clubs that are announced as the term progresses.

Please note that all clubs are free for children who are in receipt of benefit related Pupil Premium funding.

The table below details the clubs that are running. In order to request a place for a club run by an external organisation, you will need to use the contact details provided below or refer to the attached leaflet for CM Sports and Dance Junkies.
